

YEAR 4

I can use my knowledge of suffixes and prefixes to help me know the meaning of new words.

I can read all of the Year 3 and 4 exception words.

I can read, listen to and discuss a range of poems, plays and non-fiction texts.

I can explain the key points in a book I am reading showing that I have understood what I have read.

I can describe the main characters from a book I am reading showing that I have understood what I have read.

I can use quotes from the text to justify my opinions when explaining how a character is feeling.

I can predict what may happen in a text and use quotes from the text to support my predictions.

I can summarise the main points from a text using details in paragraphs to support me.

I can use a dictionary to find the meaning of new and topic related words.

I can find and record information from non-fiction texts in a variety of ways.

? Can you find any root words?

What suffixes have been added to the word to change its meaning?

What prefixes have been added to the word to change its meaning?

Can you find any examples of silent letters?

Can you explain what was the most interesting part of the story?

Can you explain what the genre is?

What clues in the text tell you how the character is feeling?

Can you explain the key points from this text?

What new words have you learnt?

What is the meaning of this word?

Can you explain what you think will happen next?

